Listen and remember

Listening to a story, then saying who was in it and what happened.

1 Learn

When someone reads to you, be a super listener! Look, listen and think: who is in it? What happens?

Eyes on the book

Ears listening

Sit still

Think: who? what?

Let's try: listen to this tiny story.

Mia found a little snail in the garden. She gave it a green leaf. The snail ate it all up!

1. Who was in it?   Mia and a snail.

2. What happened? Mia gave the snail a leaf, and it ate it all up.

Flip's tip: not sure who did what? Look back at the pictures in the book. They help you remember.

Warm up: the grown-up reads: "Leo's dog ran after a ball. Splash! It ran into a puddle." Ring who was in it.

Grown-ups: read slowly and with expression. After a story, ask just two questions: "Who was in it?" and "What happened?"

2. Close the book. Ask: who was in it? Draw them in the box.
3. Ask: what happened? The child says it, and the grown-up writes it down.
4. Open the book and look at the pictures. Did you remember it right?

Who was in it?

What happened?

Grown-ups: if your child adds something that wasn't in the book, say "Let's look and check."

3 Practise

Hen's Windy Day

Grown-up: read this aloud. Child: listen carefully!

Hen had a new yellow hat. She wore it to the pond.
Whoosh! The wind blew her hat off. It flew up into a tree.
Hen could not reach it. "Help!" she called.
Frog hopped over, but he was too small to reach.
Then Goat came along. He gave the tree a big shake.
Down fell the yellow hat, right onto Frog's head!
Everyone laughed. Frog gave the hat back to Hen. "Thank you!" said Hen.
