Capital fix-up

Find the missing capital letters and fix them.

1 Learn

Let's be capital fixers! Check every word, one at a time, from the start to the full stop.

Check in 4 steps

1. The start: my becomes My.
2. Names of people, pets and places: rex is the dog's name, so Rex.
3. Days of the week: saturday becomes Saturday.
4. The word I: i becomes I. That's 4 capitals fixed!

Flip's tip: move your finger slowly under each word and ask: is it the start? A name? A place? A day? The word I?

Warm up: fix it. Write it again.

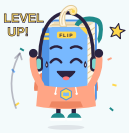

i am six. _____

Grown-ups: let your child find the mistakes before you point them out. If they miss one, say how many are left: "There is one more to find."

2 Try it together

a child and a grown-up, about 10 minutes

Write and swap

You need: paper, a pencil, and a coloured pencil or crayon.

1. Grown-up: copy these sentences with no capital letters at all: sam and i like to dig. and on sunday we went to wales.
2. Your child is the fixer. They cross out each wrong letter and write the capital above it in colour.
3. Swap: your child writes a sentence about your family. The grown-up checks the capitals with them.

Your child's sentence:

Grown-ups: there are 2 capitals to fix in the first sentence (Sam, I) and 3 in the second (On, Sunday, Wales).

3 Practise

A. Fix the capital letters. Write each sentence again.

1 max can kick a ball.

2 on sunday we had a picnic.

3 zoe and i live in dover.
